Board of Education reauthorizes schools for operation

Sixteen schools completed, more on the slate

The Navajo Nation Board of Education (NNBOE) continues to meet with schools that operate with grants from the Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) to review whether they will reauthorize or deny their grants.

Schools that do not meet fiscal or academic standards can be assumed by the Navajo Nation Department of Diné Education (DODE) until the Board determines those issues have been resolved.

As of July 9, 16 schools have been granted reauthorization by the Board. The reauthorized schools and the duration of their reauthorization is below:

1. Alamo Navajo School Board Inc.	6 months
2. Ch'oooshgai Community School	2 years
3. Dilcon Community School	2 years
4. Dzil Na O Dith Hle Community School	2 years
